The announcement was made at AIWMI's 2nd annual "Women in Finance" Leadership Summit India held in Mumbai recently. The event was organized to celebrate women leaders leading the sector who are redefining the rules of engagement.

As Chief Marketing Officer & Head Sales, APAC at Mphasis, Veda Iyer played a pivotal role in fostering Mphasis' position as a market leader in Front2Back™ Transformation. She was elected from a list of women leaders who were nominated based on elements including Guidance, Leadership, Progression, and Promise.

Commenting on this, Veda Iyer said, "It is an honor to be recognized with the title of Top 100 women in Finance, along with such accomplished women leaders from the industry. The award reiterates Mphasis' continued efforts as an Applied Tech company to maintain competitive advantage and remain relevant by providing Fin Tech solutions to BFSI clients. We hope such accolades inspire the future generation of business leaders to strive and achieve bigger milestones."

Talking about this unique initiative, Aditya Gadge, CEO, AIWMI said, "Knowledge of finance is one of the most empowering tools for women – both working and non-working. Through this initiative we not only want to acknowledge some outstanding work being done by Women professionals in finance domain but also want to make them an inspiration for several others. We congratulate Veda for featuring in our very first Power List- "India's Top 100 Women in Finance - 2019"

India's Top 100 "Women in Finance" is a campaign designed to identify the most successful and respected women professionals working in the areas of finance, financial services, financial education & financial journalism. List is an effort to promote multidimensional diversity and not just gender diversity. The list is divided in to 4 categories to identify the stand-out professionals across multiple generations, cultures, functions and employment models. The winners were identified based on their accomplishments, contributions in the sector, leadership and promise. The recognition is reviewed by a Jury comprising of senior professionals from across the globe.
