

Mphasis Corporation has openings for the following full time professional position at its office in NY, NY & unanticipated client sites throughout the US.

- Systems Mgr – Assist in planning & coordinating activities of project teams involved in the design, development, testing & implementation of complex software application architecture systems to meet specific client needs. Analyze user needs & develop software architecture solutions. Design & implement application modifications to meet project specifications. Define scope & objectives & its overall architecture system infrastructure. Review development plans designed to meet user needs & requirements & incorporate improvements to existing software application system. Utilize knowledge & expertise in the field to design, enhance, integrate, create & to implement customized software application systems. Review proposed design modification, test plans & implementation plans. Provide team with guidance and coordinate with other team members to provide trainings and guidance to build effective architecture solutions. Must be able to travel temporarily to client sites with expenses paid by the employer and/or relocate throughout the US.

Must have a Bachelor or foreign equiv. in the field of Computer, Electronics/Electrical, any Eng., Math, Physics or related field plus two years of exp in job offered or related work. Any suitable combination of edu and/or exp is acceptable toward a Bachelor or foreign equiv. Will accept experience in related job with similar job duties but given another designation or related occupation. Travel/relocation reqd. Wages: $97,800/yr with standard employment benefits. Submit resumes to: Recruitment and Employment Office, Mphasis Corporation, Attn: Job Ref #: MPH72199, PO Box 56625, Atlanta, GA 30303,