

Comprehensive Storage Assessment and Floor Space Reduction by 50% for a Leading Oil and Gas Major

The Client

The client is a super-major oil and gas company in the world. Client's storage estate was large and sprawled over multiple locations globally.

Business Objective

The client's business faced escalated risk due to end-of-life support of storage arrays. With multiple T&M engagements to manage these legacy systems, the cost of maintenance was growing exponentially, which needed to be addressed quickly while deploying the solution with reduced downtime.

How Mphasis Helped

Mphasis performed a comprehensive storage assessment that involving discovery and migration planning. Post-assessment, storage and SAN migrations were performed and legacy arrays were decommissioned.

Through the engagement, business risk was mitigated by migrating the applications to new systems. Consolidation of storage enabled 50% reduction in floor space reduction.
