Mphasis Expands Global Delivery footprint in Continental Europe

- Announces delivery center in Wroclaw, Poland
- Appoints Slawomir Kiedos as the Center Head, Poland
- To hire over 100 employees by end of 2011

Wroclaw, Poland, April 20, 2011

Mphasis, a leading IT services provider, today announced their strategic intent to augment their near-shore presence with the inauguration of a new delivery center in Wroclaw, Poland.

Mphasis Poland will be operational by mid 2011. The company has hired Mr. Slawomir Kiedos as the Center Head and plans to hire over 100 employees in the first year and double it over the next three years. The core principle of this center is to provide near-shore services to UK as well as Eastern European customers. Mphasis Poland is poised to meet customer needs with like time zone support, European language capabilities and Mphasis' tenured global expertise.

This center will support existing clients, as well as attract new ones in the region. Wroclaw delivery center will offer clients business process outsourcing capabilities, high end application development and maintenance across all verticals.

"Poland offers ability to service clients in most continental European languages and is well connected with other Western European business centers. The availability of talent, language skills and an established business infrastructure in Poland made it a natural choice for us." said Gopinathan Padmanabhan, Head Global delivery Unit. He went on to say, "Europe is an important and fast growing geography for us with a mixed portfolio of some large strategic relationships and mid-sized accounts. We are envisioning scaling the value chain for customers and their clients by metamorphosing from a cost-effective supporter to a thought leader in Continental Europe, thus, strengthening our relationship with clients in Banking & Capital Markets, Insurance, Healthcare and Telecom space".

The center will join Mphasis' network of Global Delivery centers providing best in class IT/ITeS services to clients world-wide. Employees at the Poland center will be part of Mphasis Global Talent Pool and groomed as a part of Mphasis Talent Development Program.
